Access to data

Only the staff members of the One Health Institute, Faculty of Health Sciences, UD, who are responsible for the organisation of the Study and are bound by confidentiality, have access to the personal data of the participants.

Data security measures

The Data Controller undertakes to ensure the security of the data, to take the technical measures necessary to ensure that the data recorded, stored and processed are protected, and to do everything in its power to prevent their destruction, unauthorised use and unauthorised alteration. It also undertakes to require any third parties to whom it may transfer or disclose the data to comply with its obligations in this regard. In electronic form, storage takes place on the official, password-protected computers of persons authorised to access the data.

Rights of data subjects and rules on the exercise of rights

Right to information

Following Article 15(1) of the GDPR, the data subject may request information about the personal data processed by the Data Controller.

Right to request a copy

Under Article 15(3)-(4) of the GDPR, the data subject may request a copy of the personal data processed by the Data Controller.

Right to correction

Following Article 16 of the GDPR, we will modify and clarify your personal data in accordance with your request.

Right to restriction

The data subject may request the restriction of data processing in the following cases:

- if the accuracy of the personal data is contested, we will restrict data processing until the Data Controller verifies the accuracy of the personal data; - the data processing is unlawful, and the data subject opposes the erasure of the data and requests the restriction of their use instead;
- the Data Controller no longer needs the personal data, but the data subject needs it to establish, exercise or defend legal claims; or - if you exercise your right to object, we will restrict data processing for the period during which we verify the legitimacy of your request.

Right to protest

The data subject shall have the right to object, on grounds relating to his or her particular situation, at any time to processing of personal data concerning him or her based on Article 6(1)(e) or (f). In this case, the Data Controller may no longer process the personal data unless the Data Controller demonstrates compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override the interests, rights and freedoms of the data subject or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

Right to erasure

In the cases specified in Article 17 of the GDPR, the data subject may request that we erase their personal data.

Enforcement options

If, in the opinion of the data subject, the data controller's data processing does not comply with the legal requirements, the data subject may initiate proceedings before the Hungarian National Authority for Data Protection and Freedom of Information (Postal address: 1363 Budapest, Pf.: 9., e-mail address: ugyfelszolgalat@naih.hu) or may turn to the courts.
