

Social Work and Social Economy Master Program

FINAL EXAM SET OF TOPICS

- 1/. The operation of the European Union, the main principles of its regulation. The policy of the European Union related to social security, social benefits, and the functioning of the social economy.
- 2/. The European financing practice of the organizations of the social economy. The main characteristics and procedures of financing. Priorities, strategies.
- 3/. Definitive approaches to the social economy. The position of the European Union related to the social economy, the national conditions and regulations for the operation of the social economy.
- 4/. Compare the structure, operation and regulation of the social care and service system in Hungary and in your country. National strategies, development, financing practices and their impact on the operation of the organization.
- 5/. Describe the most important management methods and techniques related to the operation of social services.
- 6/. Describe the legal, social and economic conditions in a given country. Determine the operational characteristics of organizations in the social economy in that country. Hungary may be used as an example.
- 7/. Through the analysis of a project implemented in a social field, present the steps and tasks of project planning and implementation.
- 8/. Describe the characteristics, methods, and techniques of non-market marketing by analyzing an organization related to social work or social economy.
- 9/. By analyzing a social service provider or an organization belonging to social economy, describe the characteristics of the organization's management and analyze its indicators.
- 10/. By analyzing a social service provider or an organization belonging to social economy, describe the characteristics of the organization's organizational policy and human resource management, and analyze their indicators.
- 11/. Using a concrete example, show what competencies are necessary for the implementation of international projects and international collaborations.
- 12/. Give an outline of the possibilities for strengthening a sustainable local economy with the help of social economy organizations.
- 13/. Application possibilities of qualitative research methods in the field of needs assessment and organizational development.

14/. Methods of organizational development in institutions operating in the field of social economy.

15/. Characteristics and legal status of civil organizations in your country. How does non-profit law in the European Union influence civil organizations in a selected EU country?

16/. Types of economic companies, rules of their operation, public benefit and non-profit legal status of economic companies.

17/. Discuss how characteristics, values and principles of social enterprises are influenced by domestic issues in Hungary and in your country.